

“BUILDING A CULTURE OF PEACE ... in our homes and in our church”

Finding Peace through a Prompt “You Turn” Part 3 (Luke 12:13-15)

“No U Turn” vs. “No! You Turn.”

1. Our natural reaction to conflict is to _____ others and _____ on their wrongs.
(Luke 12:13; Genesis 3, 37; 1 Samuel 18-19)

2. The _____ always makes conflict worse. (Luke 12:15; Psalm 73:21-22)

3. You can change the course of a conflict with a prompt
_____-_____. (Luke 12:15; Matthew 7:1-5)

4. Genuine reconciliation and lasting change require a _____ heart. (Luke 12:15; Matthew 15:18-19; James 4:1-3; Ezekiel 36:25-27)

Conclusion: Make a “you-turn” by confessing the sinful desires in your own life and by receiving the incredible gift of forgiveness and peace won on the cross.

Challenge: Making a “you-turn” means that you are going to go in another direction. Lay out a practical plan for the route that you will take, with God’s help, as you go in this new direction.
